

Sunday 26 November - Opening Day
14.00-18.00	Opening session	Riding waves of change
Chair:
	Words of welcome	John Jorritsma (tbc)	Mayor	City of Eindhoven	Netherlands
	Words of welcome	Jens Sejer Andersen	International Director	Play the Game/Danish Institute for Sports Studies	Denmark
	Presentation title to be confirmed	Tibor Navracsics (tbc)	EU Commissioner	Directorate General for Education, Culture, Youth and Sport	Hungary
	Presentation title to be confirmed	Snežana Samardžić-Marković (tbc)	Director General of Democracy	Council of Europe	France
15.15-15.45	Coffee break
	WADA - Fit for the Future	Craig Reddie	President	World Anti-Doping Agency (WADA)	United Kingdom
	Sports governance around the world: Any sign of progress?	Arnout Geeraert	Post-doctoral fellow	KU Leuven/Play the Game	Belgium
	Fighting crime in sport from within	David Howman	Chairman	Athletics Integrity Unit (AIU) of the IAAF	New Zealand
18.30-20.00	Welcome reception offered by the city of Eindhoven
20.00-21.45	Main session	National Sports Governance Observer - the future perspective
Chair:	National Sports Governance Observer: How does it work and how can we share it	Arnout Geeraert	Post-doctoral fellow	KU Leuven/Play the Game	Belgium
	Experts from the National Sports Governance Observer project will also appear on this session
	Panel debate, Q&A
20.00-21.45	Main session	Sexual abuse and how to prevent it
Chair: Marjan Olfers	VOICES for truth and dignity – combatting sexual violence in European sport	Bettina Rulofs	Senior lecturer	Institute of Sociology & Gender Studies	Germany
	PSV Eindhoven and the impact of abuse cases	Sander Roege	Consultant	PSV Eindhoven	Netherlands
	Presentation title to be confirmed	Willem Feenstra	Journalist	De Volkskrant	Netherlands
	English cases of harassment	NN (tbc)	Football player		United Kingdom
	More speakers to be confirmed
	Panel debate, Q&A

Monday 27 November
7.00-8.00	Running
9.00-11.45	Plenary session	International sport on trial: A case for the prosecution?
Chair:	Overview over sports corruption cases	Tbc	Researcher	University of Lausanne	Switzerland
	International investigations in sport: the hurdles for the prosecutor	Jean-Yves Lourgouilloux	Prosecutor	Parquet National Financier (PNF)	France
	Presentation title to be confirmed	Fabiana Schneider	Federal Prosecutor	Federal Public Ministry	Brazil
10.15-10.35	Coffee break
	If the IOC had to do it all over again...	Richard W. Pound	Member	International Olympic Committee	Canada
	Will self-regulation work - and when?	Francesco Ricci Bitti	President	ASOIF	Italy
	Panel debate, Q&A
11.50-13.00	Parallel session	Athletes rights and monopoly powers
Chair:	Embedding the human rights of athletes in world sport	Brendan Schwab	Executive Director	World Players Association, UNI Global Union	Switzerland
	Towards new modes of conflict and representation? The rise of labor relations in European sport	Jürgen Mittag	University Professor	Institute of European Sport Development and Leisure Studies, German Sport University Cologne	Germany
	Employment Relations within the Olympic Movement: Consequences of the Monopoly Power of Organized Sport	Maximilian Seltmann	Research Assistant	Institute of European Sport Development and Leisure Studies, German Sport University Cologne	Germany
	Can World Sport Embrace Human Rights?	Nikki Dryden	Lawyer and former Olympic swimmer	Independent	Australia
	Panel debate, Q&A
11.50-13.00	Parallel session	Picture & sound: Perfection and reality
Chair:	Paradigm repair and the hero myth in American sports journalism: An analysis of Lance Armstrong coverage	Sada Reed	Assistant Professor	School of Journalism and Mass Communication	United States
	Obsessed with perfect pictures how perfection in sport leads to decadence or how to tell real stories	Ian Mengel	Member	Work place to be confirmed	Germany
	Sports Journalism on TV at Football EURO 2016: a Comparison of Live Commentary in Four Different Countries	Thomas Horky	Professor	Macromedia University of Applied Sciences	Germany
	Introducing the way how marathons can become more exciting television product	Grzegorz Lagowski	PhD Student	Work place to be confirmed	Poland
	Panel debate, Q&A

Monday 27 November
11.50-13.00	Partner session	Clean Athletes Beliefs about Anti-Doping Policy Legitimacy and Support
Chair:	Symposium organised by LEGIT Project Consortium	The legitimacy of anti-doping policies has been questioned on several grounds: the high financial costs incurred by administering anti-doping controls; the violation of athletes' personal freedom, civil rights, and self-determination; and an overemphasis on anti-doping coercion vs. evidence-based anti-doping education. Research on these issues will provide important input for evidence-based interventions and campaigns to restore the legitimacy of anti-doping.
		Vassilis Barkoukis	Assistant Professor	Department of Physical Education and Sport Science, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki	Greece
		Dmitriy Bondarev	Associate Professor	Immanuel Kant Baltic University	Russia
		Nenad Dikic	Professor/President of Control Board	Singidunum University/Antidoping Agency Serbia	Serbia
		Dennis Dreiskämper	Senior lecturer	University of Münster	Germany
		Luca Mallia	Assistant Professor	University of Rome Foro Italico	Netherlands
		Andrea Petroczi	Professor	Kingston University	United Kingdom
11.50-13	Parallel session	Sports governance: Remedies in the remit of sport
Chair:	Good Governance in International Sport Federations: the use of ethical codes	Els De Waegeneer	Post-doctoral Researcher	University of Gent	Belgium
	Publish or perish: The need for transparency at the Court of Arbitration for Sport	Antoine Duval	Senior researcher	Asser International Sports Law Centre	Netherlands
	Toward an Olympic Governance Legacy	Andrew Spalding	Professor of Law	School of Law, University of Richmond	United States
	The Third Team: A New Model for Analysing Board Potential and Performance	Denis Mowbray	Director	Work place to be confirmed	New Zealand
11.50-13	Parallel session	State of exception: The mechanisms of mega-events
Chair:	Why the Olympic Agenda 2020 will never be put into practice	Arnout Geeraert	Post-doctoral fellow	KU Leuven/Play the Game	Belgium
	Rendering the Games: the essence of the mega-event accumulation regime	Christopher Gaffney	Independent Scholar	Geography, NYCO	United States
	Inventing the Future (of Football): Qatar 2022 and the Shock Doctrine	Tim Walters	Job title to be confirmed	Okanagan College	Canada
	City of Exception	Emanuel Mello Mattos	Doctorate candidate	Catholic University of Rio de Janeiro	Brazil
	Panel debate, Q&A
13-14.15	Lunch break				Restaurant

Monday 27 November
14.15-16.00	Parallel session	Sports governance: Roads to government action
Chair:	Government interventions	Oliver Dufeld (tbc)	Head of Section	Commonwealth Secretariat, Sport for Development and Peace	United Kingdom
	Sports governance code of Flanders	Arnout Geeraert	Post-doctoral fellow	KU Leuven/Play the Game	Belgium
	The UK model on sports governance: Lessons learned	Representative(tbc)		UK Sport	United Kingdom
	Working towards a framework for modern sports governance	Mogens Jensen (tbc)	Member of Parliament	PACE	Denmark
14.15-16.00	Parallel session	Anti-doping policies: Perception and effectiveness
Chair:	The effectiveness of anti-doping policies	Olivier de Hon	Manager Scientific Affairs	Anti-Doping Authority Netherlands	Netherlands
	Drug Anti-Diversion Strategies to Address Sports Anti-Doping Programs	Joe Harris	Co-editor	The Outer Line	United States
	Fight against doping in the top level sport of the FRG - expression of good governance?	Gerhard Treutlein	Professor emeritus	Center for doping prevention	Germany
	The ambivalence of doping and the paradoxical nature of anti-doping.	Nils Zurawski	Job title to be confirmed	Social Science, University of Hamburg	Germany
	Import, seizure and analysis of prohibited substances imported into Switzerland	Christina Weber	Dipl. Pharm.	Work place to be confirmed	Switzerland
	Perception of Doping in Switzerland	Matthias Kamber	Job title to be confirmed	Work place to be confirmed	Switzerland
14.15-16.00	Parallel session	Rio revisited: The troubled legacy of the 2016 Olympics
Chair:	Dancing with the devil in the City of God	Juliana Barbassa	Managing Editor	Americas Quarterly	United States
	Rio 2016: Between National and Olympic Challenges	Paul Hover	Senior researcher	Mulier Institute	Netherlands
	From Rio to Hamburg and Back: The Sport Mega Event Politics of Camouflage	Dennis Pauschinger	Scientific Collaborator	University of Neuchâtel	Switzerland
	Cash & Carnival – World Cup's boost and Brazil's setback	Matthias Fett	Chair of Constitutional Economics	Helmut-Schmidt-University, Hamburg	Germany
	Discussion, Q&A

Monday 27 November
14.15-16.00	Partner session	Martial Arts: The need for joint regulation
Chair: Jikkemien Verthongen	The Full Contact Martial Arts and Combat Sports (FCMACS) seem unable to organize through self-regulation. Only a few national governments have started to assist in regulating these sports. As little is known about the successes and failures of collaboration, self-regulation and regulation by governments, there is a need for knowledge exchange and
	Organised by Marianne Dortants ed.al., featuring:	Marianne Dortants	Assistant Professor	Utrecht University	Netherlands
		Jikkemien Verthongen	Assistant Professor	Vrije Universiteit Bruxelles	Belgium
		Els Dom	Coordinator	Platform for FCMACS in Flanders	Belgium
		Rik de Kinderen	Sports Doctor	Medical commission of the organization for FCMACS in Flanders	Belgium
		Marlos Coenen	Former MMA Athlete, Gym owner	R-grip gym/ Sports Council of Amsterdam	Netherlands
		Farid Gamei	Manager	Dutch Combat Sports Authority	Netherlands
		Michal Buchel	CEO	International Sambo Federation (FIAS)	Slovakia
	Discussion, Q&A
16.00-16.30	Coffee break
16.30-18.30	Plenary session	Reform in sport: An inside job or an outside intervention?
Chair:
	An independent ethics committee: Can it work in sport?	Hans-Joachim Eckert	Legal consultant	Freelance	Germany
	International Partnership Against Corruption in Sport - as seen from the governments	Stanislas Frossard	Director	EPAS	France
	International Partnership Against Corruption in Sport - as seen from the sports movement	Pâquerette Girard Zappeli	Secretary of the Ethics Commission	International Olympic Committee	Switzerland
	More speakers to be confirmed
	Discussion, Q&A
18.30-19.00	Bus transfer
18.45-22.00	Innovation tour of Eindhoven including dinner

Tuesday 28 November
7.00-8.00	Morning run
9.00-11.45	Plenary session	Sustainable mega-events: A distant dream?
Chair:	Trouble in sport's paradise: Can Qatar overcome the diplomatic crisis?	James M. Dorsey	Academic, Journalist, Syndicated Columnist, Blogger	S. Rajaratnam School of International Studies / Institute of Fan Culture / The Turbulent World of Middle East Soccer	Singapore/ Germany/Morocco
	The Winners Curse	Wladimir Andreff	Professor emeritus	Observatoire de l'Économie du Sport	France
10.15-10.35	Coffee break
	Brazil after Rio 2016	Raí Oliveira (or others)	President	Atletas pelo Brasil	Brazil
	Anti-Olympics Activism: Protest, Politics, and the Path Ahead	Jules Boykoff	Lecturer	Pacific University	USA
	More speakers to be confirmed
	Panel debate, Q&A
11.50-13.00	Partner session	Transforming the Business of Pro Cycling
Chair:	Session organised by The Outer Line
	What Role Should Endemic Sponsors/Vendors Play in Sports Governance?	Steve Maxwell	Co-editor	The Outer Line	United States
	Presentation title to be confirmed	Joe Harris	Co-editor	The Outer Line	Belgium
	Expanding the Role of Sponsors in Sports Governance	James Fairbank	Head of brand	Rapha	United Kingdom
	Presentation title to be confirmed	Raymond Kerckhoffs	Journalist/ President	De Telegraaf/ Association of International Journalists in Cycling (AIJC)	Netherlands
	Presentation title to be confirmed	Stephen Farrand	European Editor		Italy
	An assessment of the pyramidal network of professional cycling and the underrepresentation of athletes in governance and decision-making	Michael Carcaise	Executive Director	Association of North American Professional Road Cyclists	United States
	Discussion, Q&A

Tuesday 28 November
11.50-13.00	Parallel session	Changing patterns: The battle over emerging sports
Chair:	Piracy in the world of watersports	Jakob Færch	President	Danish Surf and Rafting Federation	Denmark
	Presentation title to be confirmed	Representative	Parkour	Parkour
	More speakers to be confirmed
11.50-13.00	Parallel session (tbc)	Big data: A tool for crime prevention and research
Chair:	Big data - what can we use	Marjan Olfers	Professor	Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam	Netherlands
		Rafael Buschmann	Journalist	Der Spiegel	Germany
		Michael Wulzinger	Journalist	Der Spiegel	Germany
		Jeppe Laursen Brock (tbc)	Journalist	Politiken daily	Denmark
	Discussion, Q&A
11.50-13.00	Parallel session	Kristen Worley's case & what it means for the right of athletes
Chair:	Kristen Worley's case and what it means for the rights of athletes	Andy Brown	Editor	Sports Integrity Initiative	United Kingdom
	Presentation title to be confirmed	Kristen Worley	Cyclist, activist	Independent
	Discussion, Q&A
11.45-13.00	Parallel session	Crime and abuse in pro sport
	Money Laundering in professional football	Hans Nelen	Professor of Criminologie	Criminal Law and Criminology	Netherlands
	Any spares? I'll buy or sell: An ethnographic study of black market ticket sales	Alessandro Moretti	Job title to be confirmed		United Kingdom
	Workers conditions in the sports industry	Lars Andersson	Journalist and editor	TekstwerkSport Executive	Denmark
13.00-14.15	Lunch break				Restaurant
14.15-16.00	Parallel session	Big games in small places: What is the impact?
Chair:	Hosting major events: Why all the problems?	Harry Arne Solberg	Professor	Sør-Trøndelag University College	Norway
	A Compatibility Issue: International Sporting Events and Domestic Politics (working title)	Scott Jedlicka	Job title to be confirmed	Washington State University	United States
	Big Games in Small Places: The Perceived Impact of the African Youth Games on Organizational Capacity in Botswana Sport Organisations	Louis Moustakas	Researcher	Institute for European Sport Development and Leisure Studies, German Sport University Cologne	Germany
	Hosting a Major Sports Event in a Small Country: Findings from the EuroBasket 2013 in Slovenia	Simon Licen	Assistant professor	Sport Management program,	United States
	Major Sports Events: The Challenges of Hosting Them Efficiently	Per Ståle Knardal	Associate Professor	Norwegian University of Science and Technology	Norway
	How to avoid Olympic construction? A look at some of the solutions related to organisation of the Olympic Games.	Igor Kováč	Head of Education Department	Department of Education, Documentation and Information Services, National Sport Center	Slovakia
	Discussion, Q&A

Tuesday 28 November
14.15-16.00	Parallel session		Athletes and anti-doping: Privacy and participation
Chair:	Money Matters: The Impact of Prize Money on Doping Behavior An Agent-based Analysis	Daniel Westmattmann	Research Assistant	Center for Management, University of Münster	Germany
	Negotiating privacy. Athletes assessment and knowledge of the ADAMS.	Nils Zurawski		Social Science	Germany
	Retesting Procedure: Fundamental Principles Of Law, Athletes' Rights and Common Sense	Sergey Yurlov			Russia
	Study of European National Anti-Doping Organizations (NADO) Reporting Practices	Paulina Tomczyk	Policy Officer	EU Athletes	Poland
	Participation of Athletes by Means of Digital Tools in the Context of Anti-Doping	Marc Wonneberger			Germany
	Extended Athletes' Rights - A Necessary Power Shift in Elite Sport?	Benjamin Bendrich	Scientist / Blogger	Social Studies, Sports Science, Georg-August-University Göttingen	Germany
	Discussion, Q&A
14.15-16.00	Parallel session		Culture Matters: Governance around the globe
Chair:	The Gambit - Who benefits from reducing chess to a sport and what are the costs?	Stefan Löffler	Journalist		Austria
	Culture Matters: Compliance in sports	Dolf Seegar	Advocaat		Netherlands
	The requirements of integrity in Sport Global Governance.	Alberto Carrio Sampedro	Lecturer in Law and legal theory	Pompeu Fabra University	Spain
	Understanding the applicability of good governance systems in developing sports systems	Geoff Schönberg	Research Fellow	Centre for Sport Research	Australia
	Discrimination for Indian sportswomen at all levels	Murali Krishnan	Journalist	Freelance	India
	Unethical practices: The undoing of African sports	Clement Fasan	Job title to be confirmed	Human Kinectics, Sports and Health Education	Nigeria
	Discussion, Q&A

Tuesday 28 November
14.15-16.00	Parallel session	Focus on football business
Chair:	The breakaway leagues that no-one noticed	Steve Menary	Freelance journalist	Freelance	United Kingdom
	A Post Brexit Impact: A Case Study on the English Premier League	Madison Steenson	Job title to be confirmed		Canada
	A Post Brexit Impact: A Case Study on the English Premier League	Karen Perry	Temporary Articled Student		Canada
	Does revenue growth make football's financial regulation obsolete?	Christian Müller	Dean	Hochschule Fresenius Köln	Germany
	English football's richest clubs fail to pay staff a real living wage	Tony Dobbins	Professor of Employment Studies	Bangor University	United Kingdom
	Faith of our Families	James Corbett	Journalist		Ireland
	The Potential and Efficacy of Expanding the National Football League to the European and Global Sports Marketplace: An Examination of Sports Consumption and Cultural Differences.	Bradley Ridpath	Job title to be confirmed	Department of Sport Management, Ohio University	United States
	Discussion, Q&A
14.15-16.00	Closed session	[EPAS session on Mixed Martial Arts - for members only]
16.00-16.30	Coffee break
16.30-18.30	Plenary session	Which future for antidoping - if any?
Chair:	Presentation title to be confirmed	Richard H. McLaren	Professor, lawyer	McKenzie Lake Lawyers	Canada
	Foxes in the Hen House: Don't Clean Athletes Deserve an Independent and Strengthened WADA?	Travis Tygart	CEO	United States Anti-Doping Agency	USA
	Presentation title to be confirmed	Benjamin Cohen	Director of European Office and IF Relations	World Anti-Doping Agency	Switzerland
	The duplicitous agenda in global anti-doping	Hajo Seppelt	Freelance journalist	ARD/WRD	Germany
	On the panel	Michele Verroken	Director	Sporting Integrity	United Kingdom
	On the panel	Chiel Warners	Member of athletes committee	World Anti-Doping Agency	Netherlands
	On the panel	Joseph de Pencier	CEO	iNADO	Germany
	Panel debate, Q&A
18.30-19.30	Dinner				Restaurant
19.30-22.00	Innovation activities in Genneper Park next to the conference venue
19.30-21.00	Closed session	[EPAS members only: recommendations on GG in sport]

Wednesday 29 November
7.00-8.00	Running
9.00-11.45	Main session	White collar crime in professional sport
Chair:	Football's Secret Trade	Alex Duff	Journalist	Freelance	Netherlands
	On Football leaks	Rafael Buschmann	Journalist	Der Spiegel	Germany
	On Football leaks	Michael Wulzinger	Journalist	Der Spiegel	Germany
	Presentation title to be confirmed	Wil van Megen	Legal Director	FIFPro	The Netherlands
10.15-10.35	Coffee break
	More speakers to be invited
	Panel debate, Q&A
9.00-11.45	Main session	Kazan Action Plan: Real Action or Words on Paper?
Chair:	Government representatives, UNESCO officials, sports leaders and activists will discuss the Kazan Action Plan
	Presentation title to be confirmed	Caroline Baxter Tresise		UNESCO's Bangkok office	Thailand
10.15-10.35	Coffee break
	Can democratic participation and good governance be supported by digitalization processes?	Lars Houbak	IT consultant	Danish Gymnastics and Sports Associations	Denmark
	What does it take to make sport a tool for development	Bob Munro	Chairman	Mathare United	Kenya
	More speakers to be invited
	Discussion, Q&A
11.50-13.00	Parallel session	Whistleblowers and journalist: The dangers of speaking up
Chair:	Pirates of the Caribbean. Censorship and alternative in the Cuban sports press	Eloy Viera Cañive	Lawyer and blogger	El Toque and Playoff Magazine	Cuba
	The dangers of sports journalism	Kirsten Sparre	Assistant Professor	Danish School of Media and Journalism & Aarhus University	Denmark
	Whistleblowing in sport contexts: some moral and psychological problems	Jose Luis Pérez Triviño	Professor	Law	Spain
	Discussion, Q&A

Wednesday 29 November
11.50-13.00	Parallel session	Match-fixing: Are there remedies to fix it?
Chair:	Can we fix the Match Fixing problem? An agent-based model to fight the biggest threat to modern sports.	Marius Sprenger	Student Assistant	University of Münster	Germany
	Match-fixing : what makes an athlete rig a match? A study on the personal and contextual determinants of the willingness to fix a match in Football.	Els De Waegeneer	Post-doctoral Researcher	University of Gent	Belgium
	Monitoring systems in match-fixing	Marjan Olfers	Professor	Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam	Netherlands
	Match-fixing in Europe is here to stay	Nikolaos Theodorou	Sport Integrity Officer	KEA Fair Play Code Hellas	Greece
	Discussion, Q&A
11.50-13.00	Partner session	The elephant in the room: Prevalence of doping in elite sport
Chair: Andrea Petroczi	Despite decades of coordinated and rigorous anti-doping, the true prevalence of doping has remained an elusive figure. We will present research evidence on doping prevalence and collectively explore the reasons behind the wide variance in the available figures	Symposium organised by Andrea Petroczi & co., featuring:
		Daniel Westmattmann	Research Assistant	Center for Management, University of Münster	Germany
		Olivier de Hon	Manager Scientific Affairs	Anti-Doping Authority Netherlands	Netherlands
		Andrea Petroczi	Professor	Kingston University	United Kingdom
		Nenad Dikic	Professor/President of Control Board	Singidunum University/Antidoping Agency Serbia	Serbia
		Martial Saugy	Associate Professor	University of Lausanne	Switzerland
	Discussion, Q&A

Wednesday 29 November
11.50-13.00	Partner session	Diversity in sport coaching and leadership
Chair:	While racial/ethnic minority groups are successful as football players on the pitch, they are clearly under-represented within the coaching and senior governance structures within professional football clubs across Europe. We will present recent findings on ethnic and gender diversity and suggest new initiatives which can make a positive impact	Session organised by FARE, featuring:
		Jacco van Sterkenburg	Assistant Professor	Media & Communication, Erasmus University Rotterdam	Netherlands
		Piara Powar	Director	FARE, London	United Kingdom
		Steven Bradbury	Lecturer	Loughborough University	United Kingdom
	Discussion, Q&A
11.50-13.00	Partner session	The Governance Café
	Session organised by the Knowledge Centre for Sport (Netherlands)
11.50-13.00	Parallel session	Engaging fans: Towards better governance?
Chair:	Sport Governance: Engaging Sport Fans	Aparna Mishra	Consultant		Canada
	Corporate Cheerleaders: Major League Soccer's new breed of manufactured ultras	Owen Evans	Lecturer in Sport Journalism	University of Brighton	United Kingdom
	Atletas and governance	Louise Bezerra	Executive director	Atletas pelo Brasil	Brazil
	Stadium Financing as a Good Governance Problem	Ryan Gauthier	Assistant Professor	Thompson Rivers University	Canada
	Discussion, Q&A
13.00-14.15	Lunch break				Restaurant

Wednesday 29 November
14.15-16.00	Parallel session	Autonomy and governance
Chair:	Autonomy in National Olympic Committees 2017 - An autonomy index	Stine Alvad/Mads Wickstrøm	Job title to be confirmed	Play the Game/Danish Institute for Sports Studies	Denmark
	IHF: How many member federations do play handball?	Jeppe Laursen Brock (tbc)	Journalist	Politiken daily	Denmark
	How Danish sports leaders are changing the international federations from within	Poul Broberg	Director of Sports Policy	National Olympic Committee and Sports Confederation of Denmark (DIF)	Denmark
	The Philippine Volleyball Crisis: A local and international study on sports governance	Eric Dimzon	Correspondent	Bandera	Philippines
	Who Belongs to the Nation? Sport, Migration and Citizenship Changes	Gijsbert Oonk	Associate Professor of Global History	Erasmus School of History Culture and Communication	Netherlands
14.15-16.00	Parallel session	Federations on the inside: problems and progress
Chair:	Governance in Sports: Legitimacy of Colombian Sports Federations	Ana Arias Castaño	Teacher	University of Applied and Environmental Sciences U.D.C.A.	Colombia
	For a good governance starting with the Law of Sport	Elvira Baze	Head of Sports of Educational Institutions	Ministry of Education, Sport and Youth	Albania
	Governance change for National Governing Bodies of Sport Is this leading to the alignment of strategy and governance in England/the UK?	Marc Taylor	Senior Lecturer	Academy of Sport and Physical Activity (Sheffield), School of Law and Politics (Cardiff)	United Kingdom
	Norwegian Ski Federation and two doping cases: crisis management and lost reputation	Berit Skirstad	Associate professor	Department of Cultural and Social Studies	Norway
	Romanian Football Federation: In search of good governance	Florian Petrică	TV Journalist	Faculty of Journalism and Communication Studies	Romania
	The Businesses of the Austrian Ski Federation	Johann Skocek & Florian Skrabal	Freelance Journalist/ CEO	www.dossier.at	Austria
14.15-16.00	Partner session	Anti-doping reform: Proposals from the coal face
Chair:	Session organised by INADO
	Anti-Doping Reform: Proposals from the Coal Face	Joseph de Pencier	CEO INADO	Institute of National Anti-Doping Organisations (INADO)	Germany
	A new chapter - How intelligence and investigation can change the anti-doping work	Lars Mortsiefer	Member of the Executive Board, Chief Legal Officer	National Anti Doping Agency Germany	Germany
	Too small to win? National Anti Doping Organizations and their fight against doping. The perspective of organizational theory.	Markus Seyfried	Research Fellow	German Politics and Government, University of Potsdam	Germany
	Discussion, Q&A

Wednesday 29 November
14.15-16.00	Parallel session	The sports arena: Innovative approaches and new perspectives
Chair:	Constructing a sports facility database	Søren Bang	Editor-in-Chief	Play the Game/Danish Institute for Sports Studies	Denmark
	Entrepreneur Turns Intrapreneur and Warns We Need to 'Mind the Gap'	Steve Raven	Lecturer in Sport & Event Management	School of Marketing & Management	United Kingdom
	040Beweeglab: living lab Sports & Vitality Eindhoven	Harmen Bijsterbosch	Director	InnoSportLab Sport & Beweeg!	Netherlands
	Innovative approach creates new arenas for sport	Jakob Færch	Development Consultant	The Danish Foundation for Culture and Sports Facilities	Denmark
16.00-16.30	Coffee break
16.30-18.30	Closing Plenary session	E-sport: Coming to stay - and to steal the picture?
Chair:	Presentation title to be confirmed	Ivo van Hilvoorde	Lecturer	Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam	Netherlands
	Presentation title to be confirmed	Alex Lim	Secretary General	International eSports Federation	Republic of Korea
	Integrity challenges in e-sport	Ian Smith	Integrity Commissioner	Esports Integrity Coalition	United Kingdom
	Presentation title to be confirmed	Anna Baumann	Esports Lawyer	Independent	Germany
	Presentation title to be confirmed	Steven Vos	Professor	Fontys University of Applied Sciences	Netherlands
	More speakers to be invited
	Panel debate, Q&A
19.30-20.00	Reception and drink
20.00-01.30	Dinner and party
	Conference dinner and farewell party
	Play the Game Award 2017				